

CITIZENS ADVISORY COMMITTEE (CAC)
for
The Office of Vocational Rehabilitation (OVR), Bureau of Blindness and Visual Services (BBVS) and the Bureau of Vocational Rehabilitation Services (BVRs) Harrisburg District Office
cordially invites you to attend our meetings

The CAC mission: To promote excellence in the provision of services in the Harrisburg District office area in order to maximize the employment of people with disabilities.

Who We Are: The Harrisburg OVR Citizens Advisory Committee is recruiting members from past and present OVR customers, providers and community agency members.

Purpose: Advocate at the local level for individuals with disabilities. Advise OVR staff and the PA Rehab Council of ways to improve OVR services.

Who Should Join: The best way to improve the quality of service is to gain input from all sides of the OVR process. This includes present and previous customers, parents/family members, service providers, OVR staff, community agency staff and employers.

2017 Meeting Dates: March 8th, June 14th, and September 13th and December 13th 2017

Times: 12:00-1:30 P.M.

Meeting Place: The meetings will take place at the OVR Harrisburg District Office at 555 Walnut Street, 8th floor, Harrisburg, PA 17101. Attendees may park in the garage and retrieve a parking token to exit the garage. If you wish to attend by phone, please call Toll-free: 1-855-750-1027 Access code PIN: 796186; or 717-612-4733
