CAC Mission

To support and advise the Office of Vocational Rehabilitation through a diverse and motivated group of current and former OVR customers, parents and advocates of customers, service providers, and other area stakeholders.

CAC Purpose

To evaluate the services provided by OVR in the service area and provide information and advice to the OVR District Administrator, based on the needs of people with disabilities in the local community.

About the CAC

...

The Citizen Advisory Committee takes on a variety of projects that help the Office of Vocational Rehabilitation (OVR) fulfill its mission and engage the local community.

How does membership impact people with disabilities and the local community?

...

CAC members make recommendations and provide input directly to Norristown OVR administrators.

CAC projects are geared toward assisting and advising OVR in its mission to assist people with disabilities to find and maintain jobs.

Time Commitment

The CAC meet in person 4-5 times per year on a quarterly basis, for about 90 minutes. CAC members also work collaboratively between meetings on projects and issues related to service goals.
